Snip & Stitch

The Tunic Bible Tunic Retreat

Cathy Martino

Brief Description of Class: Using the Tunic Bible book by Sarah Gunn and Julie Starr students will make their own version of a tunic top or dress. The first class will be for learning how to use the book, finding sizes, tracing the pattern, doing some fit checks, discussing fabrics and notions, cutting out, and getting a start on shoulder seams, darts, and neck treatments. The second class day will be for sleeves, side seams and finishing with tips for making other versions. There are many choices here and each tunic will be different. Techniques include choosing a neckline and constructing it, choosing a sleeve, how to sew embellishments, putting in clean finished interfacing, set in sleeves if chosen. Lots of fun, lots of techniques and learning new ways to use a pattern.
